“Social media and charities” with @salleann from Just Giving

- 7:59 pm CommsChat: Don't forget to follow our guest mod @salleann - and try using our Tweepchat room to follow the conv<http://ow.ly/3ov88> #CommsChat
- 8:00 pm CisionUK: Hi - Sam from Cision  here. Specialties are charities and social media, so looking forward to this! #commschat
- 8:00 pm Dan_Martin: Howdy y'all. Dan, @BusinessZone editor, here. Normally UK-based but today in Austin, Texas (hence attempt at a Texan greeting!) #CommsChat
- 8:01 pm CommsChat: Here we go! Pls intro yrself and say hi to our mod @salleann - Q1 in a couple of mins. #Commschat
- 8:01 pm totmac: @commschat Tom here, social media manager for @delineo. #commschat
- 8:01 pm salleann: Hi everyone. Sally from the charity marketing team @JustGiving here. Looking forward to guest moderating #commschat tonight
- 8:02 pm jane63c: Hi @salleann I teach PR at the University of Lincoln - specialise in public sector #commschat
- 8:03 pm Rach3w: Hi, Rachel from @EACH_hospices here #commschat
- 8:03 pm jpgombita: Hi @salleann. I've a series of (guest) interviews scheduled on @prconversations re: NGOs and social media, etc. Very interested. #commschat
- 8:03 pm Rich_copy: Hiya, Richard here from @meningitistrust #commschat
- 8:03 pm jon_bedford: Hi #commschat peeps, I'm Jonathan, like Sally also @JustGiving. I'm a product manager, so work with our site to make it more social.
- 8:04 pm SuzieLin: Hey all! I'm here in the US trying to stay warm on a windy day in VA. Director of Public Relations for a small biz here #commschat
- 8:04 pm salleann: And we're off... Q1 - Can small charities with small budgets compete on social media? #commschat
- 8:05 pm totmac: @commschat q1. Deffo. A small budget is not a barrier to entry. #commschat
- 8:05 pm CisionUK: Absolutely. A good idea costs very little - the challenge is proving the ROI of staff time to management #commschat
- 8:05 pm pgeorgieva: Hi everybody, I'm Petya, a PR specialist and a blogger #commschat
- 8:05 pm jpgombita: A1. If you're looking for profile & connection points, most definitely--esp. as small charities can be more nimble & creative. #commschat
- 8:06 pm SuzieLin: Q1 Absolutely small charities can if they have a solid strategy in place #commschat
- 8:06 pm jane63c: well managed social media lends itself to the small and less well resourced being just as able to compete if they have talent #commschat
- 8:06 pm mfalso02: Q1: Yes they can. Social media doesn't have to be an expensive way of advertising. get the word out. #commschat #commschat
- 8:06 pm Rach3w: Agreed - although larger charities may have more staff/time #commschat
- 8:07 pm stuglen: Q1. Definitely! We're tiny, but loved the buzz we created with #Theyrehere on 10.10.10. In-house creation .<http://bit.ly/aiR99R> #commschat

8:07 pm jpgombita: @Rach3w but (as per @avrilbenoit) larger charities w/ larger staff may mean more red tape and longer approval process. #commschat

8:07 pm pgeorgieva: A1: Size and budgets aren't an obstacle in the world of social media. Creativity, engagement and persistence are necessary. #commschat

8:07 pm Rach3w: Agree it's more about strategy and creativity - social media is a great free resource, you just need the ideas #commschat

8:07 pm yelorum: Re q1 - I think resource and time can be more of an issue than time #commschat

8:07 pm salleann: Perhaps small charities have the adv in being more localised, closer to their supporters so sharing compelling stories is easier? #commschat

8:07 pm jane63c: sometimes the enthusiastic and committed volunteer can create a better buzz than the employee #commschat

8:07 pm totmac: @commschat Smaller charities tend to get noticed on social media because of a clever idea. You don't need a massive purse to join #commschat

8:08 pm CisionUK: RT @pgeorgieva: A1: Size+budgets aren't an obstacle in social media. Creativity, engagement and persistence are necessary. #commschat

8:08 pm mfalso02: Q1 understand, but you can still promote your org virtually for free. Just need volunteers #commschat#commschat

8:08 pm marcbowker: #commschat Hi everyone, I'm Marc, a Comms Officer @quarriers Sorry I'm a little late.

8:08 pm CommsChat: If you've just joined us, we're on Q1. @salleann asks: Can small charities with small budgets compete on social media? #commschat

8:08 pm salleann: RT @stuglen: Q1. Definitely! We're tiny, but loved the buzz we created with #Theyrehere on 10.10.10. In-house creation .<http://bit.ly/aiR99R> #commschat

8:08 pm stuglen: Q1. Now @onekindtweet must out-perform others in supporter care, stewardship and engagement. Social media makes this possible. #commschat

8:08 pm jane63c: RT @pgeorgieva: A1: Size & budgets no obstacle in the world of social media. Creativity, engagement and persistence are ness. #commschat

8:09 pm pgeorgieva: @totmac absolutely agree with you. Clever ideas catch attention. This is the most important recourse for success on social media. #commschat

8:09 pm mfalso02: btw im Matt, grad from Utica College  with PR and Sports comm degree. still looking for good job in PR. Grad in 2009 #commschat

8:09 pm CisionUK: Breast Cancer Campaign are not the largest of cancer charities, but caused massive stir with bra colour/handbag campagins #commschat

8:10 pm pgeorgieva: @mfalso02 Hi there Matt, I'm Petya, it's nice to meet you #commschat

8:10 pm totmac: @commschat The only real barrier is that staff need to understand how social media works. #commschat

8:10 pm marcbowker: #commschat Q1 I think smaller charities have less bureaucracy to hold back their creativity with small or no budget.

8:10 pm mfalso02: @pgeorgieva @totmac Agree an clever marketing scheme will get you pretty far #commschat#commschat

8:10 pm totmac: @CisionUK That was a fantastic campaign. #commschat

8:10 pm Rach3w: @pgeorgieva @totmac definitely agree with you there, creative ideas are key #commschat

8:10 pm jgombita: @totmac I don't disagree, but being noticed isn't enough--there needs to be outcomes (i.e., donations, involvement, write-ups) #commschat

8:10 pm pgeorgieva: Indeed. RT @Rach3w: @pgeorgieva @totmac definitely agree with you there, creative ideas are key #commschat

8:11 pm stuglen: RT @marcbowker: #commschat I think smaller charities have less bureaucracy to hold back creativity with small or no budget. -> 100% agree!

8:11 pm totmac: @jgombita Naturally. But the initial awareness is the key to that. #commschat

8:11 pm jane63c: RT @jgombita: @totmac being noticed isn't enough--there needs to be outcomes (i.e., donations, involvement, write-ups) #commschat

8:11 pm stevebridger: Q1. Hello everyone. I agree. Less complexity within small charities, and usually less of an overbearing brand. #commschat

8:11 pm CisionUK: Absolutely. Awareness is great, but we need measurable outputs and outcomes. #commschat

8:11 pm Rich_copy: Q1 Yes . But the big issues are: staff time, responding quickly, keeping up with digi-savvy supporters and new platforms. #commschat

8:12 pm totmac: @commschat Out of interest, does anyone know the rise in donations from the Facebook bra colour campaign? #commschat

8:12 pm mfalso02: RT @stevebridger: Q1. Less complexity within small charities, and usually less of an overbearing brand. >>>I agree #commschat

8:12 pm Rach3w: @CisionUK awareness can be the first step to achieving those outcomes though #commschat

8:12 pm SuzieLin: Q1 Big or small you have to interact & engage on social media, it's not just about growing awareness w/RT & likes #commschat

8:12 pm Skipinder: #commschat Hello all,I'm Lesley. Fundraiser for @missingpeople and see social media as integral to our supporter engagement and care!

8:12 pm jgombita: @stevebridger ha! Never heard "an overbearing brand" before re: charities. Yours? Any examples you'd care to share? #commschat

8:12 pm jon_bedford: My fave example of any size charity using social media for massive impact: <http://bit.ly/cMbeyl>#commschat

8:13 pm pgeorgieva: Exactly. RT @Rach3w: @CisionUK awareness can be the first step to achieving those outcomes though #commschat

8:13 pm salleann: Q1 @marcbowker Good point! @dogstrust certainly have had the space to experiment #commschat

8:13 pm jane63c: it's also critical that the infrastructure can cope if a buzz is created - don't want the donation site falling #commschat

8:13 pm EmLeary: RT @commschat: If u've just joined us, we're on Q1. Can small charities with small budgets compete on social media? #commschat

8:13 pm marcbowker: #commschat Q1 Got to say though, not sure small can fully compete with large charity brands who have teams of digital people.

8:14 pm mfalso02: @jane63c I'd rather have donation infrastructure fail from too many donations than not generate any #commschat

8:14 pm CisionUK: @Rach3w Absolutely Rach - great ideas (cost little) we can then look to measure against website visits/registrations + donations! #commschat

8:14 pm Moptopp: HI I'm from @waverleycare. No budget no problem! But you need to build a good supporter base before great ideas can flourish #commschat

- 8:14 pm b33god: @salleann I think so. And they are less likely to be considered 'masters of spin' and thus perceived as more authentic. #commschat
- 8:15 pm jgombita: @jane63c definitely happened to MSF Canada following the Haiti earthquake. FYI, MSF Canada does not really use SM for donations. #commschat
- 8:15 pm jane63c: @mfalso02 @jane63c fair point but it can damage reputation and frustrate so donations are lost #commschat
- 8:15 pm Skipinder: Agree small charities can still have an impact on SM. Lucky as we can oft be more flexible. but time is always an issue! Q1 #commschat
- 8:15 pm jgombita: @mfalso02 @jane63c don't know about that. Anytime online infrastructure fails when making a "purchase," many folks don't return. #commschat
- 8:15 pm totmac: @jane63c Agree with you there...You only have one chance to make an impression. Same with all websites, charity or no. #commschat
- 8:16 pm marcbowker: #commschat As long as a small charity is well in touch with their supporters online then they'll make a big splash.
- 8:16 pm pgeorgieva: RT @marcbowker: #commschat As long as a small charity is well in touch with their supporters online then they'll make a big splash.
- 8:16 pm b33god: Sorry. I'm damien, work for @timebank (always forget the intro - bad communicator!) #commschat
- 8:16 pm jane63c: @jgombita @jane63c I think the NSPCC had similar trouble with the cartoon caper on fb couldn't get through so haven't given yet #commschat
- 8:17 pm hackneycityfarm: @CommsChat @salleann hello, I'm Gustavo balancing social media for @hackneycityfarm with trying to improve eco/fin susty #commschat
- 8:17 pm mfalso02: @jgombita @jane63c I understand that, but I would still rather have the buzz and find a way to work through it than have none #commschat
- 8:17 pm salleann: Agreed! RT @jane63c: @mfalso02 @jane63c fair point but it can damage reputation and frustrate so donations are lost #commschat
- 8:17 pm jon_bedford: @jane63c @mfalso02 without being overly pluggy, we (at JG) can cope with massive peaks of traffic as we have big infrastructure #commschat
- 8:17 pm stevebridger: @jgombita Overbearing charity brands? I think it's best I keep my trap shut on that one! #commschat
- 8:17 pm jgombita: @marcbowker "well in touch with their supporters online then they'll make a big splash"--an awful lot of competition for atten. #commschat
- 8:17 pm MrsMcDowall: @marcbowker Teams of digital people = red tape, form filling, and waiting. Smaller is better in my opinion #commschat
- 8:17 pm mistergough: Q1. I think smaller orgs can always theoretically be beaten by larger orgs but but it is less cut and dried now with more opps #commschat
- 8:17 pm Skipinder: Agree @marcbowker. Difficult to find time and budget to deliver, monitor and analyse properly for small charities. #commschat
- 8:18 pm jgombita: @mfalso02 @jane63c but your charity might not get a second chance. Folks could choose to donate online to another one! #commschat
- 8:18 pm AdamVincenzini: Great to see so many first time participants tonight :) #commschat

8:18 pm totmac: @commschat - btw, if you're looking for a nice introduction to using sm for charity, this isn't bad <http://on.mash.to/12ZsRs> #commschat

8:18 pm craigmcgill: @moptopp Ideas can come from anywhere though #commschat

8:19 pm stuglen: Small charities, by definition, have small supporter bases. Surely we can form stronger relationships in social media? #commschat

8:19 pm salleann: To make time for social media, look at your working week and check whether there's something you can drop for a while + test #commschat

8:19 pm Rich_copy: Even with a small charity you can create an army of supporters by engaging them. Then staff and budgets don't come into it. #commschat

8:19 pm Rach3w: @Skipinder @marcbowker definitely agree with that, especially monitoring/analysing #commschat

8:19 pm jgombita: @stevebridger drats. I'm disappointed, but respect you for it.... ;-) #commschat

8:19 pm jane63c: RT @jgombita: @mfalso02 @jane63c your charity might not get a second chance. Folks could choose to donate online to another one! #commschat

8:20 pm mistergough: RT @TheNextWeb: Four Charities That Rocked Social Media in 2010 <http://bit.ly/fwsXkg> via @tnwsocialmedia by @MeganSayers #commschat

8:20 pm marcbowker: #commschat They do say Twitter is a level playing field & so small charities have all to play for!!

8:20 pm jgombita: @jane63c one again we are in pragmatic synch on concepts.... #commschat

8:20 pm Skipinder: One other bonus for small charity is easier to integrate across teams eg. FR, Comms and campaigning. Essential for success imho #commschat

8:20 pm PhoebeRowell: Hello @commschat, made it this week.. a bit late!. I work for an agency in the public sector, and do charity comms in spare time #commschat

8:20 pm stevebridger: Re small vs big, I think that the big charities will increasingly need to chunk up their work into smaller pieces anyway. Unlearn.#commschat

8:20 pm jane63c: @Rich_copy all very well until one of them gets carried away and doesn't 'follow the rules' whatever they are! #commschat

8:21 pm totmac: @commschat Even with a small charity, every staff member using sm is an advocate. You don't need a massive digital team. #commschat

8:21 pm jane63c: @jgombita @jane63c ha ha such wise young birds! #commschat

8:21 pm hackneycityfarm: We aren't in competition. For now soc media drives people to us (visitors, local stakeholders, experts we wouldnt have access to #commschat

8:21 pm hibbsy: Our biggest media impact came after a tweet to No.10 - <http://www.westmidlandslupus.co.uk/twitter-to-downing-street/> #commschat

8:21 pm jgombita: @Skipinder what's FR? I was thinking the same thing, in that social media is another communication channel, not a silver bullet. #commschat

8:21 pm CommsChat: Q2 on its way #charitycomms #CommsChat

8:21 pm marcbowker: @jgombita Absolutely agree with you. #commschat

8:21 pm EmLeary: Q2 on its way #charitycomms #CommsChat

8:22 pm mfalso02: @totmac Agree completely. All staff members using sm as advocate will work #commschat

8:22 pm mokuska: Definitely. RT @stuglen Small charities have small supporter bases. Surely we can form stronger relationships in social media? #commschat

- 8:22 pm jane63c: just vanishing for a minute, collie on the move ;) #commschat
- 8:22 pm pgeorgieva: @totmac I support this point of view. Motivated and ambitious team of professionals can be really powerful even the small size. #commschat
- 8:23 pm stevebridger: RT @totmac: Even with a small charity, every staff member using socmed is an advocate. You don't need a massive digital team. #commschat
- 8:23 pm spirals: Easier to build volume if you're a big brand (just look at celebs on twitter) but harder to have engagement- quantity v quality #commschat
- 8:23 pm mistergough: Surely the bigger the team and resources the bigger the potential. It's mis-management that will fail larger charities. #commschat
- 8:23 pm marcbowker: @salleean @dogstrust are one of the biggest influences in my opinion of being in touch with their supporters online. #commschat
- 8:23 pm RobmDyson: #commschat < like what @stevebridger says about big charities 'chunking up' work (I sound like a Big Society apologist, but) think local..
- 8:23 pm marcbowker: RT @MrsMcDowall: @marcbowker Teams of digital people = red tape, form filling, and waiting. Smaller is better in my opinion #commschat
- 8:23 pm Skipinder: @jgombita Sorry! Fundraising. Total agree re communication. It's not a magic answer. #commschat
- 8:23 pm Rach3w: Agree with that: RT @pgeorgieva: @totmac Motivated and ambitious team of professionals can be really powerful even the small size #commschat
- 8:23 pm PhoebeRowell: From experience w/ small charities they need dedicated person to use socmed, as other director types don't have enough time #commschat
- 8:24 pm mfalso02: RT @mistergough: The bigger the team and resources the bigger the potential. Its mis-management that will fail larger charities. #commschat
- 8:24 pm CHD_UK: RT @stevebridger: Re small vs big, I think that the big charities will increasingly need to chunk up their work into smaller pieces anyway. Unlearn.#commschat
- 8:24 pm jgombita: A1. Before making all employees part of "brand champions" team, cautionary note that they're all familiar with the same playbook. #commschat
- 8:24 pm marcbowker: RT @hackneycityfarm: We aren't in competition. For now soc media drives people to us (visitors, local stakeholders, experts we wouldnt have access to #commschat
- 8:24 pm salleean: Q2 - Can building an online community translate to donations or is it a branding exercise?... Or both? #commschat
- 8:24 pm b33god: RT @stevebridger: RT @totmac: Even with a small charity, every staff member using socmed is an advocate. You don't need a massive digital team. #commschat
- 8:24 pm LangfordInk: @skipinder Hello! I work with a small community charity @wantmorefish also using social media to engage a wider support base #commschat
- 8:24 pm totmac: @mistergough Yep. But that's the case with any organisation. It's how you keep sm as nimble when you get bigger, that's the issue #commschat
- 8:24 pm EmLeary: RT @salleean: Q2 - Can building an online community translate to donations or is it a branding exercise?... Or both? #commschat
- 8:24 pm CommsChat: RT @salleean: Q2 - Can building an online community translate to donations or is it a branding exercise?... Or both? #commschat

- 8:24 pm RobmDyson: #commschat if you're aware of @whizzkidz online ..it's erm just me, so you can do a lot with small team / 1 person with focus & dialogue...
- 8:25 pm totmac: @commschat Q2. Why can't it be both? #commschat
- 8:25 pm hackneycityfarm: For now (will change) sm places us as trusted in our local area. Not (yet) seeking online donors. Value of sm elsewhere #commschat
- 8:25 pm mfalso02: Q2: It's both. You definaly raise brand awareness which can in turn lead to donations once relationship is established #commschat
- 8:25 pm Skipinder: @spirals absolutely. Same with large databases of supporters! #commschat
- 8:25 pm salleann: Q2 cont - Thinking about @theNSPCC, is cartoon awareness enough? <http://bit.ly/eadiEg#commschat>
- 8:25 pm jgombita: @Skipinder thanks for teaching me a new initialism! #commschat
- 8:25 pm marcbowker: RT @stevebridger: Re small vs big, I think that the big charities will increasingly need to chunk up their work into smaller pieces anyway. Unlearn.#commschat
- 8:26 pm mistergough: @totmac You keep nimble by remembering that social media is personal, not corporate. Makes success at any scale feasible. #commschat
- 8:26 pm Moptopp: Q2 bit of both maybe. depends how you use the relationships you build. I think of it like face to face but without the bus fare #commschat
- 8:26 pm Wantmorefish: Yes please! MT @mokuska @stuglen Small charities have small supporter bases. Can we form stronger relationships in social media? #commschat
- 8:26 pm pgeorgieva: Yes. RT @mfalso02: Q2: You definitely raise brand awareness which can in turn lead to donations once relationship is established #commschat
- 8:26 pm MrsMcDowall: RT @mfalso02: Q2: It's both. You definaly raise brand awareness which can in turn lead to donations once relationship is established #commschat
- 8:26 pm totmac: @mistergough Yep. We're singing from the same hymn sheet here. #commschat
- 8:26 pm Rach3w: @mfalso02 definitely - awareness is the first step in building a relationship which could lead to donations/support #commschat
- 8:26 pm spirals: A community is similar online and offline - charities started with communities wanting to make a difference which = support #commschat
- 8:26 pm PhoebeRowell: brand is about trust & relationships, if you've got gd rels with supporters, they'll donate time, money & other support #commschat
- 8:26 pm EwanGaffney: Hi, I'm Ewan-currently helping small charities who are starting to use SM. In my exp SM perfect for building base of supporters #commschat
- 8:26 pm marcbowker: RT @RobmDyson: #commschat if you're aware of @whizzkidz online ..it's erm just me, so you can do a lot with small team / 1 person with focus & dialogue...
- 8:27 pm jon_bedford: #commschat donations generally follow an ask & you're generally more receptive to an ask if you have a pre-existing relationship w/ cause
- 8:27 pm CisionUK: Awareness is first step on the ladder to conversion #commschat
- 8:27 pm totmac: @commschat in some ways, charities are in a better position to use SM than companies. Advocates are more passionate. #commschat
- 8:27 pm munnelol: Q2 - I believe donations are a tributary of brand awareness on social sites #commschat
- 8:28 pm hackneycityfarm: Q2 we have irl site for donation, building url one. Hard to establish sm analytics for irl donots.

Url might help justify sm time #commschat

- 8:28 pm PhoebeRowell: Good thing about social media is that there are lots of ways to build relationships and engage supporters at the level they want #commschat
- 8:28 pm marcbowker: #commschat Q2 Unless you have a strong committed following online, donations will only come if linked with other things. I think.
- 8:28 pm pgeorgieva: RT @PhoebeRowell: Good thing about social media is that there are lots of ways to build relationships and engage supporters at the level they want #commschat
- 8:28 pm marcbowker: RT @mfalso02: Q2: It's both. You definaly raise brand awareness which can in turn lead to donations once relationship is established #commschat
- 8:28 pm mfalso02: @totmac agree! charities have very passionate advocates #commschat
- 8:28 pm pgeorgieva: @PhoebeRowell very well-said. #commschat
- 8:29 pm salleean: @hackneycityfarm Interesting. What measures do you use? Is SM a good channel for recruiting + engaging volunteers for you? #commschat
- 8:29 pm kgombita: A2. (Cynic) find a lot of people wearing twibbons & tweeting, etc., re: charities but am suspicious of actual $$ translation. #commschat
- 8:29 pm MrsMcDowall: #commschat You need to build trust, harness relationship, and ASK supporters for financial support, if you do, yes it will inc. donations
- 8:29 pm totmac: @marcbowker Yep. There needs to be a call to action...It's easy for someone to write a tweet. Need a push to donate. #commschat
- 8:29 pm jon_bedford: @hackneycityfarm definitely, you could then measure click-throughs to the url, track conversions as well as conversations #commschat
- 8:29 pm stuglen: Q2. It's not all about the money. Campaigning NGO's use social media for brand awareness, then campaign actions and/or donations. #commschat
- 8:30 pm mokuska: RT @spirals: Easier to build volume if you're a big brand (celebs on twitter) but harder to have engagement- quantity v quality #commschat
- 8:30 pm hackneycityfarm: Is establishing local trust, social capital and signposting part of branding? #commschat
- 8:30 pm EwanGaffney: Q2- should be but not necessarily both, some charities have trouble moving relationship on, but SM is key for deeper engagement #commschat
- 8:30 pm jane63c: like all awareness campaigns the donations are not going to take time as you get to know each other must build in call to action #commschat
- 8:30 pm CisionUK: @kgombita I'd like to see charities charging for twibbons etc.. in the same way we charge for poppies #commschat
- 8:30 pm totmac: @commschat - You need to tell people to donate. That's why the recent silent celeb campaign didn't work. No cta. #commschat
- 8:30 pm stevebridger: #commschat Q2 @peterdeitz says this best: "Donations will be a consequence of meaningful engagement, not a measurement of it."
- 8:30 pm marcbowker: RT @jon_bedford: #commschat donations generally follow an ask & you're generally more receptive to an ask if you have a pre-existing relationship w/ cause
- 8:30 pm mfalso02: @spirals: Easier to build volume if youre a big brand but harder to have engagement- quantity v quality>>Well put #commschat
- 8:31 pm b33god: Q2 Put our first donate button online on Fri (after 10 not seeking indiv doners) - first donation today after email to community #commschat

8:31 pm PhoebeRowell: RT @stuglen: Its not all about the money. Campaigning NGOs use socmed for brand awareness, then campaign actions and/or donations #commschat

8:31 pm totmac: @CisionUK Like it. Would that be counter-productive to awareness though? #commschat

8:31 pm jane63c: oops meant dontaions will take time! #commschat

8:31 pm pgeorgieva: RT @PhoebeRowell: RT @stuglen: Its not all about the money. Campaigning NGOs use socmed for brand awareness, then campaign actions and/or donations #commschat

8:31 pm hackneycityfarm: Also re q1 were small (6 staff) but can amplify local charities with smaller local following. Competition not really the vibe. #commschat

8:32 pm b33god: After 10 years, that was supposed to read #commschat

8:32 pm jgombita: Yep @stuglen, Visibility, aid & advocacy: balancing effective yet sensitive communication at MSF @avrilbenoit: <http://ow.ly/35wqx> #commschat

8:32 pm Rich_copy: Higher engagement = higher loyalty and donations. #commschat

8:32 pm salleann: Q2 @CisionUK @jgombita - @dogstrust and @MNDScotland have both successfully raised funds via twibbon <http://bit.ly/eg04Fi> #commschat

8:32 pm pgeorgieva: @PhoebeRowell @stuglen Indeed, traditional media was more about the money, not the same on social media #commschat

8:32 pm jgombita: @CisionUK a lot of those charities haven't even introduced those "twibbons!" Official "Royal Canadian Legion poppy" for example. #commschat

8:33 pm craigmcgill: @skipinder I think that's the main point - as long as a firm can be flexible and reactive it can adapt well to SM #commschat

8:33 pm marcbowker: #commschat Q2 With the cartoon thing a lot of ppl questioned the point & voluntarily asked you to donate on @nspcc site & thus raised money.

8:33 pm jon_bedford: RT @stevebridger: #commschat Q2 @peterdeitz says this best: "Donations will be a consequence of meaningful engagement, not a measurement of it."

8:33 pm pgeorgieva: @Rich_copy + persistence #commschat

8:33 pm jane63c: RT @Rich_copy: Higher engagement = higher loyalty and donations. //like that back to relationships #commschat

8:33 pm MrsMcDowall: RT @CisionUK: @jgombita I'd like to see charities charging for twibbons etc.. in the same way we charge for poppies #commschat

8:33 pm Rach3w: Agreed - RT @Rich_copy: Higher engagement = higher loyalty and donations. #commschat

8:33 pm marcbowker: RT @stuglen: Q2. It's not all about the money. Campaigning NGO's use social media for brand awareness, then campaign actions and/or donations. #commschat

8:33 pm salleann: RT @totmac: @commschat - You need to tell people to donate. That's why the recent silent celeb campaign didn't work. No cta. #commschat

8:34 pm PhoebeRowell: @pgeorgieva Thanks! #commschat

8:34 pm jane63c: @jgombita find myself agreeing with you again! #commschat

8:34 pm spirals: We're facing the same prob as newspapers- everything on the internet is seen as 'free and easy' so asking for money is harder #commschat

8:34 pm yelorum: @craigmcgill Agree - after all, it's just another medium, isn't it? #commschat #commschat

8:35 pm jgombita: @jon_bedford @salleann both cite @dogstrust. But one-off campaigns don't seem very strategic for most... #commschat

8:35 pm stillOrange: unfortunately many charities still don't engage and only communicate their messages #commschat

8:35 pm CisionUK: @spirals If people can pay for Farmville, I'd like to see them pay for a twibbon :) #commschat

8:35 pm yelorum: RT @stillOrange: unfortunately many charities still dont engage and only communicate their messages #commschat

8:36 pm mfalso02: @spirals never thought of that. Good point #commschat

8:36 pm jpgombita: @jane63c we must drink the same social-media-cynic kool-aid. ;-) #commschat

8:36 pm jon_bedford: @jpgombita I don't know, a one-off campaign can be part of an engagement strategy can't it? Build a buzz, then curate. #commschat

8:36 pm marcbowker: RT @spirals: We're facing the same prob as newspapers- everything on the internet is seen as 'free and easy' so asking for money is harder #commschat

8:36 pm jane63c: @yelorum @craigmcgill a recurring theme of the weeks for me - SM is just another channel to be used appropriately #commschat

8:36 pm salleann: @jpgombita True, but they do provide the proof that is sometimes required to get senior mgmt on-board #commschat

8:36 pm Rach3w: @stillOrange agree - important to engage in conversation, not just broadcast #commschat

8:37 pm hackneycityfarm: @salleann meant to say have no irl measures correlating to sm. have footfall and donations in churn #commschat

8:37 pm salleann: Q3 On its way... #commschat

8:37 pm CommsChat: Q3 On its way... #commschat

8:37 pm jpgombita: @jon_bedford imagine it makes it hard to sell to sr management, that a twibbon campaign for @dogstrust would work for an illness. #commschat

8:38 pm Skipinder: Lack of self confidence maybe? RT @stillOrange unfortunately many charities still don't engage & only communicate their messages #commschat

8:38 pm hackneycityfarm: @salleann also can't isolate sm promotion from irl promotion.hope to learn useful sm analytics once donation site going #commschat

8:38 pm jpgombita: @jane63c @yelorum @craigmcgill appropriately, albeit sometimes a bit more creatively (as generally costs lower). #commschat

8:39 pm stillOrange: Some charities for example update twitter automaticaly from FB and never read/respond to what is said to them #commschat

8:39 pm spirals: @CisionUK very true- but in gaming payment is more accepted - game arcades have been doing micropayments for years #commschat

8:39 pm PhoebeRowell: So charities use social media to engage with supporters at level they want, not just about money, and need a clear call to action #commschat

8:39 pm salleann: Q3 - With many charity teams already swamped is it poss to integrate social media in to their current work flow? Any tips? #commschat

8:39 pm stillOrange: @Skipinder I think it is still the lack of understanding how it works :(#commschat

8:40 pm jane63c: @stillOrange charities aren't the only ones guilty of just communicating rather than engaging #commschat

8:40 pm pgeorgieva: @stillOrange this mistake can be done by everybody who does not know the idea of social media channels :S #commschat

8:40 pm CisionUK: @spirals Good point :) #commschat

8:40 pm PhoebeRowell: RT @stillOrange: Some charities update twitter automatically from FB and never read/respond to what is said to them / pethate! #commschat

8:41 pm totmac: @commschat Sorry to go off tangent, but the RAF Benevolent Fund sm campaign was fantastic and creative. <http://bit.ly/gPHw89> #commschat

8:41 pm marcbowker: #commschat Q3 sm was never part of my job. I just got on with it. Still not properly integrated into my job but it's so important!

8:41 pm jgombita: @jane63c: @stillOrange yep. Many, many for-profit organizations are guilty of broadcasting (and overt marketing)... #commschat

8:42 pm stevebridger: RT @jane63c: "SM is just another channel" <-- hmm, social media is transformative inside the org, too - it requires a new mindset #commschat

8:42 pm CisionUK: Monitoring media should always be a priority - why is social any different? #commschat

8:42 pm gillrowell: #commschat

8:42 pm spirals: It's about being smarter not doing more +we found where people are engaging is changing so less time is needed in other areas #commschat

8:42 pm totmac: @commschat Like all initial sm, it needs to come from the ground up. One employee convincing ppl of its worth. #commschat

8:42 pm CommsChat: RT @salleann Q3 - With many charity teams already swamped is it poss to integrate social media in to their current work flow? #commschat

8:42 pm EmLeary: RT @salleann Q3 - With many charity teams already swamped is it poss to integrate social media in to their current work flow? #commschat

8:43 pm yelorum: Q3 - seems to work well when people take up social media out of interest rather than duty/role #commschat

8:43 pm marcbowker: #commschat Q3 A bit of passion for what you do & given a bit of freedom to roam & explore sm does help. Lack of time always an issue.

8:43 pm jane63c: @stevebridger @jane63c just because it needs a new mindset doesn't alter the facts it is a channel #commschat

8:43 pm jgombita: RT @yelorum: Q3 - seems to work well when people take up social media out of interest rather than duty/role #commschat

8:43 pm Skipinder: @marcbowker ditto marc! #commschat

8:43 pm stillOrange: @jgombita @jane63c Of course but I expect charities to understand better how the relationship with supporters develops #commschat

8:43 pm stevebridger: #commschat Q3 Yes, one thing you can do is when you hear or read a good story, share it that instant - ?in the moment? - to your network

8:44 pm salleann: @marcbowker Do you find you have to justify internally what you're doing on SM or allowed to get on with it? #commschat

8:44 pm PhoebeRowell: Some charities eg @cutfilms campaign entirely on premise of social media ? (young people) peer led communication?it's already inc #commschat

8:44 pm marcbowker: RT @totmac: @commschat Like all initial sm, it needs to come from the ground up. One employee convincing ppl of its worth. #commschat

8:44 pm salleann: RT @stevebridger: #commschat Q3 Yes, one thing you can do is when you hear or read a good story, share it that instant - ?in the moment? - to your network

8:44 pm Rach3w: Agreed - RT @yeloroom: Q3 - seems to work well when people take up social media out of interest rather than duty/role #commschat

8:44 pm Skipinder: Just wondering...Any other fundraisers here for #commschat ?

8:44 pm Moptopp: #commschat I guess we'll see more people have it integrated into their jobs eventually. starting out of interest and passion helps

8:44 pm Rich_copy: Q3 @meningititrust we introduced 11 new staff bloggers two weeks ago. All we asked for is 1 blog a week. Little and often. #commschat

8:44 pm craigmcgill: @salleann schedule tweets early in the day and then have an ex-smoker check for updates 2/3 times a day #commschat

8:44 pm GrahamParkerPR: RT @stillOrange: @jgombita Of course but I expect charities to understand better how the relationship with supporters develops #commschat -Y

8:44 pm jgombita: @stillOrange @jane63c why? Do you assume that people who communicate for charities are automatically more skilled & empathetic? #commschat

8:45 pm stuglen: Q3. Look for champions in your organisation - don't force social media on anyone. #OneKind, staff of 12, 4 choose to be involved. #commschat

8:45 pm marchowker: RT @yeloroom: Q3 - seems to work well when people take up social media out of interest rather than duty/role #commschat

8:45 pm salleann: RT @spirals: It's about being smarter not doing more +we found where people are engaging is changing so less time is needed in other areas #commschat

8:45 pm craigmcgill: @salleann ex-smokers have brains wired to the idea of quick breaks due to their old habits #commschat

8:45 pm RobmDyson: RT @Rach3w: Agreed - RT @yeloroom: Q3 - seems to work well when people take up social media out of interest rather than duty/role #commschat

8:45 pm PhoebeRowell: The main thing I find at the moment is understanding how social media works?still about internal education/awareness #commschat

8:45 pm jane63c: certainly find my grads are being asked to pick up sm as a key role when they get first jobs #commschat

8:45 pm jon_bedford: @jgombita I don't agree. Don't people wear ribbons for Aids & breast cancer? It's the same concept, just online. #commschat

8:45 pm salleann: Haha! RT @craigmcgill: @salleann schedule tweets early in the day and then have an ex-smoker check for updates 2/3 times a day #commschat

8:46 pm stillOrange: Q3 it is definitely easier if it comes from own initiative/experience, you just don't spend time learning from scratch #commschat

8:46 pm marchowker: @salleann Bit of both to be honest. But then I'm trusted to just get on & do it. #commschat

8:46 pm totmac: @commschat The only danger with multiple staff members doing it is a lack of message (off topic) Can be easily fixed though #commschat

8:46 pm jgombita: OK, many of us definitely liked @yeloroom response! (Most RT'd thing today, methinks.) Kudos. #commschat

8:46 pm GrahamParkerPR: RT @jane63c: certainly find my grads are being asked to pick up sm as a key role when they get first jobs #commschat - Cos its the in thing.

8:46 pm hibbsy: @Skipinder ...I'm here - <http://lupusrunner.co.uk> Fundraising for LUPUS UK #commschat

8:46 pm marchowker: #commschat Q3 Wow, I'm not alone. This feels good! Phew.

8:47 pm GrahamParkerPR: RT @jane63c: rather than it being appropriate #commschat

8:47 pm yelorum: @PhoebeRowell yes that seems to be another issue and there's little time for training #commschat

8:47 pm jgombita: @jon_bedford it seems to me that you have to hand over (a small amount of) money to get an IRL ribbon. Not so for a twibbon. #commschat

8:47 pm Skipinder: @jgombita @yelorum Absolutely agree! I love twitter so easy to integrate. #commschat

8:47 pm marcbowker: RT @stuglen: Q3. Look for champions in your organisation - don't force social media on anyone. #OneKind, staff of 12, 4 choose to be involved. #commschat

8:47 pm jane63c: @GrahamParkerPR @jane63c also think its because there's an assumption they understand it! #commschat

8:47 pm danslee: RT @PhoebeRowell: Charities use social media to engage with supporters at level they want, not just about money #commschat

8:48 pm PhoebeRowell: @yelorum can social media be fully integrated into charity comms in the long run if it's done out of interest rather than duty? #commschat

8:48 pm stuglen: RT @totmac The only danger with multiple staff members doing it is a lack of message. #commschat > I don't want message, I want personality!

8:49 pm Moptopp: RT @stuglen: RT @totmac The only danger with multiple staff members doing it is a lack of message. #commschat > I don't want message, I want personality!

8:49 pm stillOrange: RT @stuglen: Q3. Look for champions in your organisation - dont force social media on anyone. #commschat

8:49 pm salleann: @Rich_copy Agreed! Makes it seem less daunting if the workload is shared + manageable #commschat

8:49 pm jon_bedford: @jgombita true, in those examples ppl were pushed to donate after getting twibbon. only 10% did, but most were new supporters #commschat

8:49 pm PhoebeRowell: RT @stuglen: RT @totmac The only danger with multiple staff doing it is lack of message > I dont want message, I want personality! #commschat

8:49 pm jgombita: @stuglen @totmac personality or not, loose social media lips could sink a charitable ship. #commschat

8:50 pm jon_bedford: RT @stillOrange: RT @stuglen: Q3. Look for champions in your organisation - dont force social media on anyone. #commschat

8:50 pm totmac: @stuglen No, you need personality too. But there's a danger of different accounts dilluting campaign with inconsequential content #commschat

8:50 pm EwanGaffney: if your org is easy going enough, lots of indiv twitter voices can be a great way to convey office environment and personality #commschat

8:51 pm jane63c: RT @jgombita: @stuglen @totmac personality or not, loose social media lips could sink a charitable ship.// reputation time! #commschat

8:51 pm totmac: @stuglen the last thing you want is someone tweeting about their breakfast on a company account... #commschat

8:51 pm Rach3w: @EwanGaffney agree with that, @JustGiving do this really well I think #commschat

8:51 pm yelorum: @PhoebeRowell I think the drive is from Comms but works well if carried out by people who 'volunteer' to use social media #commschat

8:51 pm pgeorgieva: haha RT @totmac: @stuglen the last thing you want is someone tweeting about their breakfast on a company account... #commschat

8:51 pm salleean: Wow time flying at tonight's #commschat. Q4 on its way...

8:52 pm marcbowker: @jgombita @stuglen @totmac Control it too much & it doesn't work. You need to trust ppl who are passionate for the cause. #commschat

8:52 pm GrahamParkerPR: <http://bit.ly/bBLaQj> used lots of SM, what really brought home the bacon was developing 121 relationships with people #commschat

8:52 pm yelorum: RT @jon_bedford: RT @stillOrange: RT @stuglen: Q3. Look for champions in your organisation - dont force social media on anyone. #commschat

8:52 pm PhoebeRowell: Social media & message both about trust though, charities need to trust socmedia/comms staff to respond: personality + message #commschat

8:52 pm marcbowker: RT @EwanGaffney: if your org is easy going enough, lots of indiv twitter voices can be a great way to convey office environment and personality #commschat

8:52 pm jgombita: @Rach3w @totmac @stuglen or his/her bad date the night before.... #commschat

8:52 pm totmac: @marcbowker I agree with that. But that's the case with all social media. #commschat

8:52 pm CisionUK: Social media channels by their very nature should have personality (or 2 or 3...) #commschat

8:53 pm stuglen: Needs to be guidelines, but I want to hear an charity's personality. Three of us tweet, I'm sure we all appeal to diff audiences. #commschat

8:53 pm Skipinder: @PhoebeRowell @yelorum if you are just starting out you need passionate champions til rest of org passionate too! #commschat

8:53 pm jgombita: @marcbowker I'm betting you are a lot younger and more optimistic than me! ;-) Just don't confuse "control" with being sensible. #commschat

8:53 pm pgeorgieva: Exactly. RT @CisionUK: Social media channels by their very nature should have personality (or 2 or 3...) #commschat

8:53 pm PhoebeRowell: Comes down to drawing the line between personal and corporate? #commschat

8:53 pm Skipinder: RT @jgombita @stuglen @totmac personality or not, loose social media lips could sink a charitable ship. #commschat

8:53 pm jgombita: @CisionUK the in-house name for social media channels could be Sybil! ;-) #commschat

8:54 pm CommsChat: RT @salleean: Wow time flying at tonight's #commschat. Q4 on its way...

8:54 pm GrahamParkerPR: RT @stuglen: Three of us tweet, I'm sure we all appeal to diff audiences. #commschat = lack of consistent message?

8:54 pm stevebridger: @jgombita The caveats you're sharing now are not the problem of social media, but of org

culture, etc. #commschat

- 8:54 pm CisionUK: @jgombita @Rach3w @totmac @stuglen A bad time to mention my date last night? #commschat
- 8:54 pm EmLeary: RT @salleann: Wow time flying at tonight's #commschat. Q4 on its way...
- 8:54 pm Louwatson1908: @stuglen and have diverse perspectives and interests which should be valued #commschat
- 8:54 pm totmac: @CisionUK On a company account too! ;) #commschat
- 8:55 pm salleann: Q4 - What are your fave SM tools for monitoring and evaluating? Which are best for those on tight budgets? #commschat
- 8:55 pm PhoebeRowell: RT @Skipinder @PhoebeRowell @yeloroom if you are starting out need passionate champions til rest of org passionate too!>herehere! #commschat
- 8:55 pm totmac: You need a personality; it adds to why people get invested. But there needs to be, as with all sm, guidelines and an aim... #commschat
- 8:55 pm jane63c: @marcbowker @jgombita @stuglen @totmac manage then - it's just wise to protect the reputation #commschat
- 8:55 pm marcbowker: @jgombita Agree. There does need to be clear but not restrictive guidelines in place. Quite a tricky area. #commschat
- 8:55 pm Rich_copy: If you want to see the power of social media, read through the forum posts on our site after<http://bit.ly/fLlBRh> #commschat
- 8:56 pm jgombita: Yes! RT @jon_bedford: ...twibbons are just one part of many. Getting engagement levels & tone right are much more important #commschat
- 8:56 pm AdamVincenzini: Guys, this is our last #CommsChat for 2010 - we'll be back in early January. Follow @CommsChat for updates.
- 8:56 pm CisionUK: @totmac Couldn't resist :) #commschat
- 8:56 pm totmac: @CisionUK In all fairness, I wouldn't be able to either. #commschat
- 8:56 pm AdamVincenzini: And it appears we are finishing with a bang! #CommsChat
- 8:57 pm sasha_taylor: RT @danslee: RT @PhoebeRowell: Charities use social media to engage with supporters at level they want, not just about money #commschat

- 8:57 pm Moptopp: Q4 #commschat I find Netvibes dashboards quite handy for monitoring
- 8:57 pm yeloroom: @totmac think you've summed it up! #commschat
- 8:57 pm Skipinder: @GrahamParkerPR @stuglen it works for One Kind. Engaging, personal but the One Kind message still the focus. #commschat
- 8:57 pm jgombita: @stevebridger yes and no. Formerly "water cooler" chat about a bad date, etc., would stay within the office. One hopes. #commschat
- 8:57 pm RobmDyson: Found #commschat a little hard to follow, but overall a lot of sense being talked by some excellent charity comms people. Nice to see.
- 8:57 pm marcbowker: #commschat Q4 Quite like www.socialmention.com
- 8:57 pm EwanGaffney: q3, my exp, setting out short and clear guidelines of what is NOT acceptable then letting staff use own personality is effective #commschat

8:58 pm CisionUK: kurrently.com great for tracking both twitter AND facebook updates! (free) #commschat

8:58 pm Moptopp: Q4 #commschat and the mighty @tweetdeck of course:)

8:58 pm marcbowker: RT @RobmDyson: Found #commschat a little hard to follow, but overall a lot of sense being talked by some excellent charity comms people. Nice to see.

8:58 pm garethoconnor: some useful social media insights shared tonight #commschat

8:58 pm pgeorgieva: It's great that there is a variety of points of views. When everybody thinks the same way - nobody is thinking enough. Great #commschat :)

8:58 pm marcbowker: RT @EwanGaffney: q3, my exp, setting out short and clear guidelines of what is NOT acceptable then letting staff use own personality is effective #commschat

8:59 pm RobmDyson: Q4 - @samepoint (<http://www.samepoint.com>) easily #commschat

8:59 pm marcbowker: RT @CisionUK: kurrently.com great for tracking both twitter AND facebook updates! (free) #commschat

8:59 pm jpgombita: @stillOrange remember, I'm a cynic. Get tired of assumption that PR person is the "ethical conscience" of an organization, too. #commschat

8:59 pm marcbowker: RT @Moptopp: Q4 #commschat and the mighty @tweetdeck of course:)

9:00 pm salleann: I'm going to be old school and say Google Alerts as my first one :) #commschat

9:00 pm I_smellarat: RT @AdamVincenzini: And it appears we are finishing with a bang! #CommsChat : True to form ;-p

9:00 pm EwanGaffney: Q4 - this is all very useful stuff, I wonder does anyone has found <http://twiangulate.com/search/> useful for measuring network?#commschat

9:00 pm pgeorgieva: The same with me + Google Analytics. RT @salleann: I'm going to be old school and say Google Alerts as my first one :) #commschat

9:01 pm jon_bedford: I still <3 tweetdeck, viralheat great for twitter stats, postrank for blogs. Oh and google alerts, of course! #commschat

9:01 pm Rach3w: @salleann I'm with you there! #commschat

9:01 pm PhoebeRowell: Mid #commschat with charity director @gillrowell who needed a brief twitter lesson ? maybe she?Il make it before the end ;) #commschat

9:01 pm gillrowell: Hello, I'm Director of a small UK charity, keen to learn how to use socmed enjoyed reading the comments tonight #commschat

9:02 pm Skipinder: Apols to chums not taking part in #commschat! That probably all seemed a bit random!

9:02 pm GoldenGus: Speaking of personal accounts should have used this one rather than @hackneycityfarm for #commschat . Found it through work and stayed there

9:02 pm marcbowker: @totmac Fine line & all comes down to personality of person tweeting/posting. Difficult to control. #commschat

9:02 pm salleann: @TheCounter is handy for looking at follower trends... not all about numbers though I know :) #commschat

9:02 pm jane63c: been another good session - seasonal felicitations one and all speak in 2011 :) big thank you to the @CommsChat team @salleann #commschat

9:03 pm stuglen: @GrahamParkerPR Consistent message with a different tone. #commschat

9:03 pm pgeorgieva: @EwanGaffney looks very interesting, I will definitely check it out, great you said about it ;) #commschat

- 9:03 pm stevebridger: #commschat Q4 Don't forget that charts and graphs are very useful but the very best thing you can do is be a real part of your community :)
- 9:03 pm Rich_copy: RT @jane63c: been another good session - big thank you to the @CommsChat team @salleann#commschat
- 9:03 pm CisionUK: And for making sense of it, klout.com and PeerIndex  good for influence analytics #commschat
- 9:03 pm stillOrange: @marcbowker @totmac That is why finding the SM champion in organisation is so important. #commschat
- 9:03 pm Skipinder: @mokuska @stillOrange definitely agree. Trust in staff and willingness to let go #commschat so important
- 9:03 pm totmac: @marcbowker Indeed. As you said, it's a fine line. #commschat
- 9:04 pm salleann: Wow it's 9pm! Thanks all for participating in the charity #commschat special. Let's keep the conversations going after tonight :)
- 9:04 pm Rach3w: RT @stevebridger: charts and graphs are very useful but the very best thing you can do is be a real part of your community :) #commschat
- 9:04 pm PhoebeRowell: For charities using social media, it's still about achieving PR objectives set at the start? but how to measure relationships? #commschat
- 9:05 pm EwanGaffney: @pgeorgieva no problem, let me know if you discover any ground breaking uses for it ! #commschat
- 9:05 pm marcbowker: RT @stillOrange: @marcbowker @totmac That is why finding the SM champion in organisation is so important. #commschat
- 9:05 pm GoldenGus: Thanks #commschat folks gonna look at those tools
- 9:05 pm totmac: @commschat Really enjoyed tonight. Thanks to @salleann for being a great mod and hope to see everyone in 2011. Have a good Xmas #commschat
- 9:05 pm jgombita: Echo (my kindred sister) @jane63c: Thanks @CommsChat peeps and guest moderator, @salleann. #commschat
- 9:06 pm EwanGaffney: just stumbled on #commschat tonight, but even in this short time found it really useful, will be back - good to meet you all! #commschat
- 9:06 pm pgeorgieva: @salleann it was a great chat tonight, great final of 2010, thank you! #commschat :)
- 9:07 pm GoldenGus: @salleann SM helps us get volunteers and buzz around events - so definitely helps with recruitment - #commschat (@hackneycityfarm)
- 9:07 pm yelorum: Thank you, @commschat, @salleann and @cisionuk #commschat
- 9:07 pm ThirdSectorLab: @PhoebeRowell I'm not sure there is an answer to that. Things like Klout  certainly don't measure how meaningful a relationship is #commschat
- 9:07 pm stuglen: RT @totmac: Really enjoyed tonight. Thanks to @salleann for being a great moderator. Have a good Christmas. #commschat -> Echoed.
- 9:07 pm stillOrange: @marcbowker @totmac Unfortunately how someone without SM experience is supposed to recognise that champion ? ;) #commschat
- 9:07 pm marcbowker: #commschat Great to chat with you all tonight. Need to sign off. Look forward to re-reading all comments tomorrow!!
- 9:08 pm ThirdSectorLab: Wishing I'd had time to join in with #commschat tonight, hopefully next time.

9:08 pm pgeorgieva: @stillOrange well, that's a good question! #commschat

9:08 pm PhoebeRowell: over too soon!! thanks everyone, really enjoyed it. thanks @commschat @salleann. #commschat

9:08 pm pgeorgieva: @ThirdSectorLab next #Commschat will be in 2011 - follow @commschat for more info ;)

9:08 pm Rach3w: Thanks @CommsChat guys and @salleann, that was a really interesting and enjoyable hour! #commschat

9:08 pm CisionUK: RT @yeloroom: Thank you, @commschat, @salleann and @cisionuk #commschat

9:08 pm marcbowker: @salleann Thanks Sally, great job! Really enjoyed that, my iPhone is very tired now though!! #commschat

9:08 pm GoldenGus: hope @commschat had some way of capturing #commschat as it occurred - went back to delete tweets from wrong account! Thanks!

9:09 pm jon_bedford: Nice to #commschat with you all tonight. Thanks to my awesome colleague @salleann for moderating :-)

9:09 pm spirals: Good #commschat tonight - nice to tweet you all :-)

9:09 pm Skipinder: Enjoyed my first #commschat even with Tweetdeck crashing and trying to eat my dinner at the same time! Cheers!
