CommsChat with Mike Quinn

A CommsChat on monetising the Facebook 'like'

On Monday we were joined by Mike Quinn from Adobe to discuss how the ubiquitous blue thumbs up- the 'like' button- can be monetised.

As rumours abound that Facebook is preparing an IPO, with estimates setting the amount to be raised as high as $10 billion, it seems timely that this week's #CommsChat focused on the social network

Mike Quinn is product marketing manager at Adobe EMEA, which is working with Facebook on several projects this year.

CommsChat would like to thank its sponsors.

CommsChat See you all same time place next week. Please feel free to carry on the chat. but for me, it's good night. #commschat -9:02 PM Jan 30th, 2012

robertcgage @jamespoulter @AdamAzor This is true. Some still have websites from the 90s too! #commschat -8:46 PM Jan 30th, 2012

robertcgage @AdamAzor Clumsy phrasing by me. The corporates say they want it but they don't understand it. #commschat -8:46 PM Jan 30th, 2012

CommsChat Only 12% - a good time to move onto topic 4 - How will social media audiences respond?
#commschat -8:42 PM Jan 30th, 2012

AdamAzor @robertcgage interesting view maybe corporates think that, but every brand ive worked with sees Facebook as a mandatory channel

Stevejuice Brands are 'monetising' their Facebook campaigns just as much as their trad PR campaigns. If both are done well. #commschat -8:39 PM Jan 30th, 2012

AdamAzor I believe all businesses can measure ROI on Facebook however the nature of business will decide to what degree it can monetise it #commschat -8:37 PM Jan 30th, 2012

jamespoulter @Stevejuice @MichaelDiPaolo good point - I think that has been changing in the past few months as B2B companies get involved tho #commschat - 8:37 PM Jan 30th, 2012

SheilaS A3. Can you monetise human relationships? RT @CommsChat: T3 - Will everyone be able to move into monetising their FB presence? #commschat -8:36 PM Jan 30th, 2012

CassandraFaria I think in some instances it will be more about measuring a return than monetising - depending on the type of business #commschat -8:36 PM Jan 30th, 2012

MikeQuinn As brands invest in social not being able to get ROI is an issue #CommsChat T3 -8:35 PM Jan 30th, 2012
